6. MEDICAL PRACTITIONER'S DECLARATION

I certify that the information in sections 4 and 5 above is accurate. I understand that my personal data will be processed by the International Olympic Committee (IOC), Maison Olympique, 1007 Lausanne, Switzerland, as a data controller and by the International Testing Agency (ITA), a not-for-profit foundation providing independent expert anti-doping services to International Federations and Major Event Organizers, which, pursuant to the IOC Anti-Doping Rules applicable to the Games of the XXXIII Olympic Summer Games Paris 2024 (the Games), has been entrusted by the IOC with the processing and review of TUE applications on the occasion of the Games. I also understand that my personal data will be processed by other Anti-Doping Organization(s) (ADO) acting as separate controllers pursuant to their respective information notices. The abovementioned entities will process personal data to (i) contact me regarding this TUE application, (ii) process and evaluate this TUE application in accordance with International Standard for Therapeutic Use Exemptions (ISTUE), (iii) verify the professional assessment in connection with the TUE process, or (iv) in connection with Anti-Doping Rule Violation investigations or proceedings. I further understand that my personal data will be uploaded to the Anti-doping Administration and Management System (ADAMS) for these purposes (see the ADAMS Privacy Policy for more details).

7. ATHLETE'S DECLARATION

I, _____, certify that the information set out at sections 1, 2, 3 and 7 is accurate and complete.

I understand that the IOC, Maison Olympique, 1007, Lausanne, Switzerland, will process my personal data, including my health data, as a data controller and that pursuant to the IOC Anti-Doping Rules applicable to the Games of the XXXIII Olympic Summer Games Paris 2024 (the Games), the IOC has entrusted the processing and review of TUE applications on the occasion of the Games to the International Testing Agency (ITA), which is a not-for-profit foundation providing independent expert anti-doping services to International Federations and Major Event Organizers.

I understand that the medical information and records included and/or referred to in my TUE application are protected by medical confidentiality.

I agree to share with my physician(s) such medical information and records as necessary to evaluate the merits of my TUE application, as well as with the following recipients: (i) the physicians of the TUE Committee (TUEC) of the ITA, the IOC and the Anti-Doping Organization(s) (ADO) responsible for making a decision to grant, reject, or recognize my TUE; (ii) the World Anti-Doping Agency (WADA), including its TUEC, who is responsible for ensuring determinations made by ADOs respect the International Standard for Therapeutic Use Exemptions (ISTUE); (iii) the authorized personnel of the TUECs, under the supervision of the physicians and (iv) other independent medical, scientific or legal experts bound by professional secrecy and/or strict confidentiality provisions (Experts) as may be consulted by the TUECs; to the extent such persons need to review and/or assess my TUE application to ensure compliance with the World Anti-Doping Code and International Standards. I further agree that the physicians and authorized personnel of the TUECs of the ITA and the IOC share such information to the abovementioned recipients to the extent strictly necessary for the purpose of the TUE application.

I have read and understood the TUE Privacy Notice, explaining how my personal data will be processed in connection with my TUE application.

TUE PRIVACY NOTICE (1)

Your personal data will be processed in relation to this TUE by the International Olympic Committee (IOC) at Maison Olympique, 1007 Lausanne, Switzerland, as the data controller.

This Notice is issued by the International Testing Agency (ITA) – a non-for-profit foundation under Swiss Law with its registered office in Avenue de Rhodanie 40b, 1007 Lausanne, Switzerland.

For the effective operation of doping controls on the occasion of the Games of the XXXIII Olympic Summer Games Paris 2024 (the Games), the IOC has entrusted the ITA with a mission related to the implementation of the anti-doping programme in relation to the Games, as set out in the IOC Anti-Doping Rules applicable to the Games (the Rules). This mission includes the management of TUE application on the occasion of the Games. The ITA has appointed a TUE Committee to review TUE applications in accordance with the Rules. This Notice describes the personal data processing that will occur in connection with your submission of a TUE Application.

TYPES OF PERSONAL DATA (PD)

- The information detailed in the TUE Application Form including without limitation:
 - For the medical practitioner: Your name, medical specialty, license number, license body, address, city, country, postcode, telephone, fax, email
 - For the athlete: your name, date of birth, contact details, sport and discipline, the diagnosis, medication, and treatment relevant to your application;
- Supporting medical information and records about the athlete; and
- Assessments and decisions on the TUE application by Anti-Doping Organizations (ADOs), including the IOC, the ITA, WADA and their TUE Committees and other TUE experts, including communications with you, relevant ADOs or support personnel regarding the TUE application.

PURPOSES & USE

Your PD will be used in order to process and evaluate the merits of the TUE application in accordance with the International Standard for Therapeutic Use Exemptions (ISTUE).

Your PD will also be used for the following purposes, in accordance with the World Anti-Doping Code (Code), the International Standards, and the IOC Anti-Doping Rules and other anti-doping rules of ADOs with authority to test:

- Results management, in the event of an adverse or atypical finding based on the Athlete sample(s) or the Athlete Biological Passport;
- Investigations, or related procedures in the context of a suspected Anti-Doping Rule Violation (ADRV).

TYPES OF RECIPIENTS AND INTERNATIONAL TRANSFERS

Your PD, including your medical or health information and records, may be shared, for specific purposes, with the following recipients:

- The physicians of the TUE Committee (TUEC) of the ITA, the IOC and the Anti-Doping Organization(s) (ADO) responsible for making a decision to grant, reject, or recognize your TUE. The decision to grant or deny your TUE application will also be made available to ADOs with testing authority and/or results management authority over you;
- WADA authorized staff, including its TUEC, who is responsible for ensuring determinations made by ADOs respect the International Standard for Therapeutic Use Exemptions (ISTUE);
- The authorized personnel of the TUECs, under the supervision of the physicians;

- Other independent medical, scientific or legal experts bound by professional secrecy and/or strict confidentiality provisions (Experts) as may be consulted by the TUECs; to the extent such persons need to review and/or assess the TUE application to ensure compliance with the World Anti-Doping Code and International Standards.

Your PD will mainly be processed in Switzerland, in the European Economic Area or in Canada. In case of international transfer of your PD to countries not providing for an adequate level of data protection (Third Countries), such transfer will take place in accordance with the Code and the International Standard for the Protection of Privacy and Personal Information (ISPPPI). When transferring your PD to Third Countries, we comply with applicable laws and regulations, and ensure that the recipients of your PD maintain appropriate safeguards and provide an adequate level of data protection (such as via the implementation of standard contractual clauses, as approved by the competent supervisory authority). Such transfers may also rely on derogations under applicable data protection laws (such as article 17 of the Swiss Federal Act on Data Protection).

Your PD will be stored in the Anti-Doping Administration and Management System (ADAMS) database hosted in Canada and operated and managed by WADA so that it may be accessed by the physicians and authorized personnel of the TUECs of WADA and other ADOs to the extent strictly necessary for the purpose of the TUE application. For details about ADAMS, and how WADA will process your PD, consult the ADAMS Privacy Policy (ADAMS Privacy Policy).

FAIR & LAWFUL PROCESSING

Each of the above-processing is based on the necessity to perform the contract between us governing your conditions of participation in the Games (such as the Conditions of Participation) including your commitments as an athlete to comply with provisions applicable to you (notably the Rules and the Code) and, where applicable, the substantial public interest and the interest of the IOC to guarantee doping-free sports competitions at the Games and to protect the clean athletes.

The processing of your health data, is also necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims involving you.

When you sign the Athlete Declaration, you are confirming that you have read and understood this TUE Privacy Notice.

RIGHTS

Subject to statutory restrictions under applicable laws, you have rights with respect to your PD under the ISPPPI and other regulations, including the right to access and obtain a copy of your PD and to have your PD corrected, or deleted. You also have the rights to restrict the processing of your PD in certain circumstances. You may have additional rights under applicable laws, such as the right to lodge a complaint with a data privacy regulator in your country. The Athlete understands that the medical information and records included and/or referred to in the TUE application are protected by medical confidentiality. The Athlete agrees to share with the Practitioner such medical information and records as necessary to ensure compliance with the TUE process, as well as with the IOC, the ITA and the recipients mentioned above to the extent it is needed to fulfil the abovementioned purposes.

The Athlete understands that he/she has the right to withdraw the above-mentioned authorization to release medical information as described above. To do so, he/she must notify the ITA, his/her ADO(s) and his/her physician(s) of his/her decision. Such withdrawal could have consequences for him/her, such as rejection of his/her TUE as competent organisations will be unable to properly assess it in accordance with the World Anti-Doping Code and International Standards and it may still be necessary to process his/her personal data in connection with this, such as, for investigations or proceedings related to possible ADRVs as well as for establishing, exercising or defending against legal claims involving him/her, WADA and/or an ADO.

TUE PRIVACY NOTICE (2)

SAFEGUARDS

The IOC and ITA, acknowledge the sensitive nature of the medical information and records included and/or referred to in the TUE applications, which are protected by medical confidentiality and data protection laws. Therefore, they have put in place measures necessary to safeguard the confidentiality of such information in accordance with applicable laws. This includes providing secure facilities, software and web-based systems to the physicians and authorized personnel of the TUECs and the Experts for their missions.

Only authorized physicians, personnel and Experts, bound by medical secrecy and/or professional secrecy and/or strict confidentiality provisions, may have access to the medical information and records included and/or referred to in the TUE applications, strictly limited to what is necessary for the review and assessment of the TUE applications and certificates in accordance with the World Anti-Doping Code and International Standards. You can find information about security in ADAMS by consulting the response to How is your information protected in ADAMS? in our ADAMS Privacy and Security FAQs.

RETENTION

Your PD will be retained by the ITA, the IOC and, ADOs (including WADA) acting as separate data controllers, for the retention periods described in Annex A of the ISPPPI. TUE certificates or rejection decisions will be retained for 10 years. TUE application forms and supplementary medical information will be retained for 12 months from the expiry of the TUE. Incomplete TUE applications will be retained for 12 months.

CONTACT

You can consult the ITA at privacy@ita.sport for questions or concerns about the processing of your PD. To contact WADA, use privacy@wada-ama.org. Any complaint in relation to the processing of your PD that has not been addressed within a reasonable timeframe may be addressed to the Swiss Federal Data Protection and Information Commissioner, Feldeggweg 1, CH - 3003 Bern, Switzerland, <https://www.edoeb.admin.ch>.

If you are residing in the EU, you also have the right to lodge a complaint with the supervisory authority of your country of residence, place of work or place of the alleged infringement.

For your information, the IOC's representative in the EU is Olympic Broadcasting Services S.L. Calle de Torrelaguna, 75, 28027 Madrid, Spain.

Please submit the completed form to us via ADAMS (keeping a copy for your records) or contact tue@ita.sport.
